I like to watch the moon at night

The world can be cruel
So very rarely kind

But, give me a moment
I want to ease your mind

Let's go down to the shore
Where waves greet earth
And winds taste of sea
Like salty seaweed on a bed of rocks
It's cold, it's the same, it's everchanging

I'll share you my warmth
Hand in hand, lean on me
Hear my heart beat
Hear it ebb and flow, like the waves you can see

I'll hold you

I know your day has been tough
And tomorrow will too

But, right here, in this moment

I'm here for you
